Holy, loving Spirit, come!

O LORD HEAR MY PRAYER (Prayer Requests)

You are invited to name your prayers out loud.

O Lord hear my prayer, O Lord hear my prayer.

When I call answer me.

O Lord hear my prayer, O Lord hear my prayer.

Come and listen to me.

IN THE LORD, I'LL BE EVER THANKFUL

In the Lord I'll be ever thankful,

In the Lord I will rejoice!

Look to God, do not be afraid;

Lift up your voices, the Lord is near;

Lift up your voices, the Lord is near.

Respecting those staying to pray,
please leave in silence.

“There is no word for goodbye in Lakota. That's what my mother used to tell me. Sure, there are words like toksa, which meant "later," that were used by people as a modern substitute. She'd told me later that the Lakota people didn't use a term for farewell because of the idea that we are forever connected. To say goodbye would mean the circle was broken.”
